Ortale Showing New Ramblers This Week

Preview showing of the 1962 Rambler line has been scheduled for today, tomorrow, and Saturday at Al Ortale Rambler, 1885 Torrance Blvd., and 20611 Hawthorne Ave., it was announced here yesterday by Al Ortale, owner of the Torrance agency. Prizes, refreshments, and favors will be handed out during the three-day event, the leader said. AMONG THE many new models to be shown by the Ortale agency will be the new Rambler American convertible, featuring many advanced engineering features and mechanical improvements designed for greater economy and reduced maintenance.

Another model scheduled for display will be the Rambler American station wagon, offered with 100-inch wheelbase, and two- and four-door models. An all-new double-safety brake system and self-adjusting brakes are standard on all models, Ortale said. New features on the 1962 models include an optional automatic clutch transmission, a compact automatic transmission as optional equipment, and optional lounge-tilt seat for greater economy, and increased mileage between lubrication and oil changes.

BMHS Senior Accepted for Special Class

Carmela Steed, a senior at Bishop Montgomery High School, has been accepted for enrollment in a special secondary school students art workshop conducted by the University of California at Los Angeles. The course, limited to 25 students, is designed for high ability students wishing to work with the university standards of excellence. It will emphasize fundamental drawing, painting, and composition. Miss Steeds applied for the program on the recommendation of her art instructor at Bishop Montgomery, Sister Rose Margaret, C.S.J. Her recommendation included two-year membership on the art staff, and her work as associate art editor of the school annual, "Excalibur." In addition, school officials report Miss Steed maintains a high scholastic average and combines her artistic ability with an interest in literature. She was winner of first prize in the annual creative writing contest at the local school last year.

Ex-Saxon Enters Northrop Tech

Michael C. Kimble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Kimble, 17103 Wilkie Ave., is now attending college at Northrop Institute of Technology in Inglewood. He is studying aeronautical and astronautical engineering, and upon graduation will be awarded the bachelor of science degree. If he wishes to accelerate his education, he may do so by attending school during the summer quarters. This will enable him to complete the four-year program in three calendar years. Kimble is joining hundreds of young men from all parts of the United States and many foreign countries who are obtaining their engineering education at Northrop Tech. This famous school is located in the heart of Southern California's aerospace industries and is one of the country's largest sources of trained engineering personnel in this field. Prior to being admitted to NIT, Kimble attended North High School. When he graduates from Northrop Institute, Michael plans an engineering career with an aerospace or electronic company.

You wouldn't work for 1/3 less.
Why should your savings?

They shouldn't. Yet that's exactly what happens when you save at a bank. Banks pay an interest rate of 3% a year. At Great Western Savings, though, you get a current annual rate of 4 1/2%. In other words: your savings earn a full 1/3 less at a bank than they do at Great Western. Quite a difference. A difference that, in the long run, can mean the extra dollars you'll need to buy a new home. To educate your children. To retire in comfort. To achieve any of the purposes for which you put hard-earned money aside. But interest isn't everything. There's also the matter of security. Are your funds as safe at Great Western as they are at a bank?

Indeed they are. Accounts at Great Western are insured to $10,000 by a permanent agency of the U.S. Government. (Bank deposits are insured in the same way, to precisely the same amount.) And your funds are further protected by Great Western's assets of more than $400,000,000 (5th largest among all U.S. savings and loan associations). Never in its 37-year history has Great Western failed to honor a withdrawal request. In full. On the spot. Highest interest with insured safety—that's the Great Western story. Makes sense, doesn't it? So if you're still saving at a bank, why not look into the advantages offered by Great Western Savings? Do it soon. Can you afford not to?
